

Minor in Chinese Studies

Whether you're looking to enter the world of business, engage in international policy and diplomacy, or collaborate with scientists and engineers around the world, the Chinese Studies minor can help you diversify your language abilities and cultural knowledge so that you're prepared to cross boundaries. We'll help you integrate Chinese Studies with your major so that you can finish your degree on schedule.

Contact the Chinese Studies department now to learn more!

Chinese Studies Program Coordinator: Eleanor Kurucz
chinesestudies@ucsd.edu 858-534-6477
chinesestudies.ucsd.edu

Minor Requirements

3 Lower Division Courses
(Language Course or
Non-Language Course)

7 Upper Division Courses
(Language Course or
Non-Language Course)

Examples of Lower Division Courses:

CHIN 10A-B-C	MUS 113AS
CHIN 20A-B-C	HILD 12
MUS 113AS	TWS 23

Examples of Upper Division Courses:

CHIN 100A-B-C	HIEA 131
LTCH 101	SOCI 188G
SOCI 188G
POLI 132

Only three (3) of the courses credited to the minor can be language courses. You must take a combination of three (3) different departments for Upper and Lower Division courses. Only three (3) courses can be accepted from other institutions.

